

Chamblee Cities Week Scavenger Hunt Locations and Descriptions

Find them all and redeem your chits for prizes at Family Field Day at Dresden Park on April 23rd!

#1: Butterflies in the Sky

Description/Question: Huntley Hills was founded in in the mid-1950s, originally built by the Long Construction Company. What was the subdivision originally known as?

GPS: 33°54.184"N 84°18.208"W

Hint: Look high, look low but you'll only find this if you dare where trolls go

#2: The Beautiful Game

Description: Keswick Park is Chamblee's premier park with active sports fields, playgrounds, a community building and walking path. How large is Keswick Park exactly?

GPS: 33°53.649"N 84°19.034"W

Hint: over the river and through the woods to grandmother's...stump we go?

#3: Aces

Description/Question: PDK Park began its life way back to World War I. Before its life as an airport, the property was farm land. It became a training camp in World War I and, in 1940, construction was authorized to convert the property to a military airport—the original Naval Air Station Atlanta. What was the original World War I training camp known as?

GPS: 33°52.596"N 84°18.222" W

Hint: Watch out for props and jet wash!

#4: Choo Choo!

Description/Question: Chamblee was incorporated in 1907! That's older than the states of Alaska, Hawaii, New Mexico, and Arizona. Chamblee began as rural dairy farm land that eventually became the intersection of two railroads. One railroad carried passengers from Atlanta to Charlotte while the other carried cargo between Roswell and Atlanta. Chamblee eventually saw the boom of a wartime population influx and postwar factory development and, eventually, into the town we know today. Before becoming Chamblee, what was the original settlement's name?

GPS: 33°53.682"N 84°17.953"W

Hint: Watch out for Po-Po

#5: Clairmont or Clairemont?

Description: Completed in 1999, Clairmont Park encompasses 1.5 acres of passive park land just outside PDK Airport. It also connects two of Chamblee's oldest neighborhoods. Can you name them?

GPS: 33°52.816"N 84°18.594"W

Hint: This hiding spot might seem a bit shady

#6: The Annexation of Puerto Rico

Description/Question: The Dresden East area represents Chamblee's newest residents, making Dresden Park the newest jewel in the crown of city amenities. Much like the 1994 film, Little Giants, Dresden Park is a scrappy 24 acres of active use fields, walking trails, a concession stand and riverfront. In what year was the Dresden East area annexed into Chamblee?

GPS: 33°51.946"N 84°17.709"W

Hint: Are you pious enough to make the cross?

#7: Dynamite!

Description/Question: Shallowford Park is a 1.16 acre neighborhood park with family activities, including a playground, picnic shelters, open space and a small trail. Located just across the street is a premier facility that Chamblee is proud to house, Dynamo Swim Club. Dynamo offers competitive swimming and recreational swimming. Did you know that Dynamo has produced Jr. National Champs 3 times? Can you name any of the years?

GPS: 33°52.678"N 84°17.263"W

Hint: Yogi and Boo Boo would be on the prowl to steal yours